

Duke of Edinburgh's International Award Adventure Voyages

Date: Depart Monday at 0900.

Return: Afternoon of the following Friday around 1500.

Cost: $850 per trainee.

Numbers : 10 trainees

Each person going onboard will be Covid tested (RAT) prior to boarding. The crew will undertake theirs on Sunday Afternoon and the Trainees prior to boarding. Parents will need a plan if their child fails the RAT.

Each person onboard will need to be fully vaccinated.

We can conduct a pre sail information session one weekend prior to the voyage, parents can call the office on 03 62343348.

We can accommodate trainees on Sunday night if travelling to the ship on the morning is impractical (i.e. they live in Smithton). There will be a Lady Nelson crewmember onboard but no cook, so trainees will need some money for dinner and breakfast on the Sunday night, Monday morning (plenty of cafes and eateries nearby at reasonable cost). They will need to test before boarding.

For those who are local they (by arrangement) will be able to undertake our Safety Induction Training and do a pre voyage day sail to begin to "learn the ropes" in the weeks prior to the voyage.

The voyage will follow a formula of one day at each station

Command and Navigation

Engineering

Catering

Deck Work.

On the final evening the trainees will select a Master, Engineer, Bosun and Cook (s) from their group and they will (with some supervision) "Bring the ship home to Hobart".

Finish time is designed so as there will be plenty of time for trainees to catch the intrastate busses. Crew can escort trainees to the bus station if necessary.

All crew will have "Working with Vulnerable People". There will be a male and a female crewperson assigned to be a "contact person" for the trainees onboard if they have any issues whilst onboard.

All Trainees will need to complete the online course

<https://dofoodsafely.health.vic.gov.au/index.php/en/> there are 7 training elements and an assessment to complete. Trainees will need to send a copy of the completion certificate to the Lady Nelson office.
